PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Fall is a magical season in Hendersonville. Driving along the Blue Ridge Parkway, taking a hike or just looking out the window is the proof of it. Enjoy fall.

Our Annual meeting combined with Coffee and Conversation on October 18 at 10 AM will be at the Hendersonville Historic Courthouse. We urge you to attend this meeting. There will plenty of time for socializing and enjoying the delicious and plentiful food provided by the C&C hostesses. Be sure to let Martha Rumbough know that you will be there. We will have a short meeting and a vote on nominees for open Board positions.

There are 2 vacancies to be filled – President (a two-year term) and Secretary (a one-year unexpired term.) Martha Rumbough has agreed to be nominated Activities Chair for a one-year unexpired term and will continue as Coffee and Conversation Chair. If these positions are not filled, we will no longer have a Welcome Club at the end of 2016.

I feel fortunate to belong to Welcome Club and to have served as your President for the past four years (2 –two year terms.) I hope that you feel that way too and consider volunteering for one of the open positions.

Come to meet your local writers on November 3 from 1 to 4 PM at the Historic Courthouse. Meet the Authors is a free event sponsored by your Welcome Club. Eight local authors representing different genres will be participating. Four will be speaking about their motivations, inspirations and reasons for writing, followed by a brief reading from a book that will be available for purchase. There may be time for questions and answers. Some of the writings will also be available for signing. This event has been planned and orchestrated by our Events Chair, Ginny Hamsom and Peggy Cramer, author and WC member. Hope to see you there.

Ladies, please save Friday, December 2 on your calendar and join us at our holiday luncheon at the Hendersonville Country Club starting at 11:30 AM. This year our lunch will be a plated service with your choice of entrée. Seating is limited so sign up early. A flyer and registration form for our Holiday Party are included in this newsletter.

– Safelight has been busy –

September 20, 2016 – Walk-a-Mile in Our Shoes

Walk a Mile in Our Shoes was a successful event. The weather was lovely and there were about fifty participants. “An Evening with Pam Stone,” held later that evening at Flat Rock Playhouse, went well. Pam was hilarious! She signed copies of her book, “I Love Me a Turkey Butt Samwich” and donated $5.00 to Safelight for each book sold that evening. In total, Safelight raised over $10,000.00 from the two events. Kudos to them!

2016 Safelight statistics
Laresa Griffin, Director of Development, shared the following 2016 stats with me:

- Safelight has had 362+ hotline calls (some calls yet to be entered into their log)
- There have been 141 shelter clients, to date (90 adults and 51 children)
- Average stay has increased to 137 days (due to the lack of affordable housing in the area)
- Fifteen women and children have been housed in Safelight’s transitional housing program
- Safelight has accompanied seven women on hospital visits for sexual assault
- Safelight’s partnering doctors and nurses have completed twenty-four child medical exams at Believe Child Advocacy Center for children who have experienced extreme child abuse or sexual assault
- Safelight has assisted 211 clients through the Henderson County Family Justice Center, helping them with 680 separate services (court advocacy, counseling, case management, etc.)

As you can see from the above, Safelight’s efforts continue to make positive differences in many lives.

2017 Welcome Club Charity Nominations

Back Pack Program
The Back Pack Program operates under the nonprofit 501(c)3 status of St. John of the Wilderness in Flat Rock, the organization that supported its founding efforts in 2010. The program is open to all Henderson County children in need from all faiths/walks of life.

The program currently serves five schools (Atkinson, Upward Elementary, Immaculata, Flat Rock Middle and Little Red Day Care) with backpacks containing 3 dinners, 2 lunches, 2 breakfasts and 2 snacks each Friday. Typically, between 150-180 backpacks are sent home on a weekly basis. During the 2015-2016 school year, a total of 5,848 backpacks were provided. Additional meals are provided for long weekends and vacations. The volunteers who meet on Friday morning to pack the backpacks include people from all over the County.

The Program partners with Care Partners at the Hendersonville Health and Rehabilitation Center (adult day care clients who have been diagnosed with memory issues.) These clients pre-pack breakfast and snack items in Ziploc bags—an activity that provides the clients with a purpose and a boost in self-worth. They look forward to adding their help to this project.

Budget: The program works on a slim annual budget of $20,000. All funds received are directed towards food.

Blue Ridge Literacy Council (BRLC) Website: www.litcouncil.org/

A nonprofit 501(c)3, dedicated to transforming adult lives through improved literacy and English communication skills.

Approximately 200 adult learners are assisted annually in Henderson County by 120 volunteers. Tutors provide one-to-one or small group instruction to help students improve their language, reading, writing, math, technology and life skills. Citizenship classes are offered throughout the year to help immigrants prepare for the naturalization exam, while improving their civics knowledge and English communication skills.

In Henderson County, one out of four community members cannot read above a 5th grade level. By educating adults, two generations can be lifted out of poverty at once; it is known that the key indicator of success for a child in school is the education level of the parent(s), especially the mother. BRLC focuses on the often forgotten adult learner, which impacts the entire household. 70% of BRCC students are female and have the goal of providing a better future for their children.

Tutors are provided for the following in a one to one setting:
- Reading
- Math
- Writing

Other offered programs:
- Lexia - A computer based reading program students can use while waiting for a tutor or to supplement learning
- Computer Skills – Small class setting (no more than 5)
- Wilson Reading System – A reading program for students with Dyslexia

Budget – approximately $250,000 annually.
The Storehouse Website: www.storehouseonline.org

The Storehouse, a 501 (c)3, was founded in May 2000 to provide food and hygiene products to people with limited financial resources, and often, limited life skill sets. The Storehouse is a faith-based organization. Clients are served based on their needs – not their religious beliefs and are referred to The Storehouse through various social agencies, pastors, churches, doctors or schools.

Clients under the age of 60 are given assistance for a limited period of time. These clients are given the opportunity to participate in an interagency basic budgeting class to help them learn to manage their finances. Since clients over the age of 60 are unlikely to see their financial situation improve, they are eligible to receive services, as needed, for the duration of their lives.

Prior to the holidays, Henderson County public school counselors assist the Storehouse in identifying children in need. In 2015, the Storehouse reached out to 2,398 children, whose holidays were made so much brighter, due to the generosity of those who donated time, talent and treasure to this project.

Annual Budget: $160,000. On average, $5,000/month alone is spent to feed the hungry. No federal or state funding is provided to the Storehouse. The Storehouse applies for and has received grants from the Cummings Foundation and from the Hunger Coalition. Fundraisers include a Pancake Breakfast, Dine and Donate, 5K Walk/Run and an annual Golf Tournament.
Meet the Authors
Hosted by our Welcome Club of Henderson County

Thursday, November 3, 2016
1:00 PM to 4:00 PM
Henderson County Historic Courthouse
Grand Community Room - Floor 2

This will be a wonderful event for meeting local authors, hearing their inspirations and sharing some of their writing. Avid readers will enjoy reviewing new books. There will also be time to buy signed books for your book club, library and holiday gift list. Note: some authors take only cash or check; some take credit cards.

Regretfully, room capacity is permitted for only 100 people, so please arrive early as the general public is also being invited. If you find closed doors, please come back between 3:15 & 4 and join us as space allows.

Justi the Gifted is epic quest fantasy for readers 12 to 92. A gift from a god can be good, but what if it is damaged?

The epic fantasy novel Justi the Gifted by R.R. Brooks has a Christmas sale price and comes with a free color map, character list, and an author’s signature.

Deanna Klingel: Children’s literature

Deanna K. Klingel is an award-winning author of children’s literature. Her books cover Pre K through grade 12, and are in several genres. She lives in Sapphire Valley with her husband and golden retriever.

Deanna aims to inspire readers and writers of all ages when she speaks at conferences and book festivals, speaks at schools, museums, historical events, and libraries.
Bob Covert: Short Stories

Wise women and all sorts of men come to life in Bob’s attention-grabbing short stories. He captures joy, sorrow, excitement in humorous gems.

Bob Covert created 28 captivating short stories in Wild Words, with humor, pathos intriguing plots and fascinating characters.

Peggy Cramer: Fiction/murder mystery

Peggy Jean Cramer’s murder mystery novella, Adolf Meistermann: The Devil’s Legacy, won the national Novel Beginnings contest sponsored by Carl Reiner and AuthorHouse. The sequel, The Meistermann Family: The Devil's Revenge completes the story. [This year she was awarded first place in the Essay and Short Stories categories of the Four Season’s Senior Games Literary Arts competition.]

The Meistermann Family: The Devil’s Revenge introduces Buddy Burke, a down-to-earth sleuth with a talent for understanding human behavior - the good and the bad. As he discovers the truth about the death of Adolf Meistermann, he struggles with the law and his conscience. The law cannot cover every instance to guarantee justice is done. Buddy Burke, Connecticut State Marshall, learns that in some cases common sense, fairness and understanding determine justice outside a court of law.

Sign/Sellers only

Carol Heilman: Fiction/hometown mystery

Carol Heilman began writing family stories for newspapers and magazines. Agnes Hopper Shakes Up Sweetbriar, her featured book today, was inspired by her mother’s spunky spirit and her dad’s humor.

Debra Edwards: Fiction/contemporary women’s issues

This is Debra’s inaugural novel. In this fictional novel based-on-fact, she covers current women’s issues by using mystery, crime, romance and intrigue to weave a story you will not forget.

This is a well-researched novel about a badly abused girl-child who by chance is ‘discovered’ by one of America’s Top Modeling Agencies and becomes a highly paid model. On assignment in Guam, she is kidnapped and sold to a Saudi Prince.

Tina FireWolf – Photography with prose

Tina FireWolf has trained Middle School science students and 2-toed sloths, but says training her mind was the most challenging of them all. As a facilitator of “Remembering”, Tina FireWolf is igniting a reconnection to our Wise Self, to others, and to the world of the Unseen.

Tina dedicates herself to the joyful dissemination of her Self-Leadership Tools, Tips & Tales from her contemplative photography book: Beneath the Chatter: the wise self awaits. She believes Enlightenment is for Everyone – in every ordinary moment.

Leanna Sain, Romance/period time travel

Looking for a cross between Nicholas Sparks, Jan Karon and Sarah Addison-Allen? You’ve found her. Meet award-winning, local author, Leanna Sain.

WISH-- Maddie wants to see her dad one more time, but there’s a problem. He’s been dead for two years.

Red Curtains (new release) -- Dead bodies, fake money and falling in love were NOT part of the assignment.

ATTENTION ALL MEMBERS!!

In our ongoing effort to streamline the complexity, time and expense that go into producing our annual directory we are planning to do the following:

• We will provide each member with an electronic membership listing.

• It will contain ALL the same information found in the printed directory: name, spouse name (if applicable), mailing address, home phone, cell phone, birth date (not year!), where you formerly lived, and your email address.

• It will be distributed as an attachment to an email.

• It will be updated quarterly. Thus as membership changes arise (new members, changes in phones, addresses, etc), you won’t have to update anything – it will all be done for you! You can delete the previous listing and keep the new one.

• If you like having a “hard copy”, you can print the listing – it will take only 4 pieces of paper. Then, when your quarterly update arrives, you can print another one, if you like, or download it to your smartphone.

• Providing the membership listing to you via email, rather than via web/internet, eliminates the security problems the web/internet presents.

This change will reduce our carbon footprint and help us be good stewards of the environment. It also reduces the time the Membership Chair needs to spend compiling the directory (it is a really major time consuming affair!).

FOOD AND FRIENDS

Food with Friends is for couples who enjoy cooking to gather over a theme meal and get to know each other. Our first gathering was all together at a home with heavy hors d'oeuvres and dessert. It was obvious that there was going to be much laughter and interesting conversation at future meals. Every other month four couples gather at each of two homes. The first meal was Italian, then Irish, and this month is Greek. In December we will gather all eight couples together for a soup meal and to plan next year. We have room for more couples. Consider subbing to determine if you and your spouse would like to join or become regular dining members. For more information or to join, call Lynne Cigal at 828-693-3766.

A New Theatre Group forming in 2017
